The erection of an addition will provide more room for the hospital and eventually will be a necessity from their own standpoint. If that part is ken off, I will favor the proposal.

The Bellingham, Wash., Reveille tells this bit of romance involving "Last August a high school student of the city saw a picture in the cur-rent number of a magazine, depicting a group of high school girls of the Mc-Kinley high school in Honolulu, Ha-waii. Being of an experimental turn of mind, he clipped the illustration from the magazine, pasted it upon an envelope and marked one of the girl's faces with an arrow. A letter ad-dressed to the "girl with the marked face" was written and inclosed in the envelope. Then he wrote a letter to the principal of the school, stating his reasons for writing and started the two epistles on the way.

Months passed and the student forgot the episode. Yesterday he received a note from Honolulu from the young woman "with the marked" face Hawaii, the high school student contemplates a journey to the South Pacific to accept the invitation of his correspondent to spend the winter in a country where the climate "never TO ATTEND COROL

TOMOBROW TO DISCUSS PROBLEMS OF SCHOOL

The Punahou mothers' meeting called by President Griffiths of Punahou, to which invitations have been sent out to all Punahou mothers, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3:30

The invitations are informal, being sent out by the trustees through the students of the school. If by any chance a mother has not received an invitation the trustees are anxious that she regard herself as invited. It is desired that every Punahou mother e present.

This is the first gathering of Punahou mothers as far as is known. The meeting will discuss plans for cooperation in questions which arise in the aining of children and will attemp to work out some plan by which mothers and teachers can work together in solving some of these problems.

The proposal for some such meeting came almost simultaneously from a number of mothers and from the Marriage licenses were issued by school authorities. Enough questions
